An Escorted Fighter Mind Food, All Kinds Crime as a Business All Meat, Bad Diet

By Arthur Brisbane

LOS ANGELES, FEB. 28—In this city, tonight, the Basque Uzcudun fights the giant negro Godfrey, 40,000 people paying $125,000 to look on, a pitifully small sum compared with what "cultured Easterners" pay for a heavyweight fight.

How men spend their time or money is their business. The State of California has chosen to disgrace itself, like many Eastern states, by legalizing prize fighting. Such prize fighting being profitable and dishonest, will continue.

The people of Los Angeles not interested in fights, note that "policemen on motorcycles will escort the negro from his training ranch to the prize ring." Average citizens, none too prosperous, pay in taxes for the gasoline that runs those motorcycles, and pay the policemen's wages.

Some will think the negro prize fighter, 6 feet 4½ inches tall, weight 235 pounds, "reach" 86 inches, might find his own way to the prize ring, also, the other white fighter.

In this happy city you find any food that your mind requires. Old-fashioned preachers will tell you what Hell looks like and how to keep out of it. Others guarantee that there is no such place. The problem is to be happy while you are here.

A hundred healers here will cure you of anything. Another hundred will prove that there is nothing the matter with you except in your own mind, if you happen to have one.

Others assure you there is no sickness, no need of healing no mind at all, NOTHING BUT LOVE.

One sign on a private residence reads: "Free talk on retaining and regaining youthful poise." Rotund women struggle to retain or to regain the affection of middle-aged dull husbands, shaped like seals or walruses. Very pathetic.

As regards murder, the city of Cleveland excels in police efficiency. The percentage is 86 against 63 in Baltimore, 36 Kansas City, 16 in St. Louis. The National Crime Commission publishes Dr. Louis N. Robinson's statement that police inefficiency and leniency in courts has made crime almost the safest business in the United States. The percentage of failure is lower than in the retail grocery business, for instance.

In Chicago, insurance companies notify the citizens that they will insure against bombing of buildings by various branches of crime, bootleggers, competing labor organizations, etc. If you can't discourage crime, then the next best is to insure against it—although it doesn't help much if you happen to be at home for the bombing.

Stefansson, Arctic explorer, gets in a hospital, under medical supervision, a diet consisting exclusively of fresh meat and water. Thousands within the Arctic Circle live on such a diet for months at a time, some of them eating as much as 20 pounds of fresh meat in a day.

But it is not a good diet. Men were put on the earth to cultivate it, and should eat all of its products, the spices and the oranges of the south, and the red meat from the west. But if compelled to choose between all meat and all vegetables, choose the meat. You probably will not live as long, but you will think more. A vegetable diet is not good for thinking.

RECORD PROTECTION AT BIG PRESENTATION TO 'EAGLE' AND MOTHER

The most elaborate police protection ever accorded a distinguished visitor to Boston was arranged today for Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his mother—the Detroit school teacher to be honored tomorrow night by 150,000 educators.

When Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh and her son arrive tomorrow evening at Mechanics Building, where a life membership in the National Education Association will be presented to the former, they will find a small army of 325 police guards on hand to protect them from too generous admirers.

It is the desire of the N. E. A. committee that not more than 6500 be admitted to the hall. This is only slightly more than a quarter of the

FULLER REFUSES TO DENY REPORT THAT GOODWIN IS OUSTED

The rupture between Governor Alvan T. Fuller and Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank A. Goodwin reached the breaking point today, with resultant rumors about the State House that Goodwin had been discharged.

The Governor refused to deny or affirm the report, but stated that the question of Goodwin's removal was in the hands of Commissioner of Public Works William M. Williams, "and if he needs any advice I can give it to him."

This statement was made in newspapermen following a conference in the Governor's office with Commissioner Williams and Lieut.-Gov. Frank G. Allen.

On emerging from the conference Commissioner Williams said any statement that came from the Governor, Governor Fuller, on the other hand, said he had told Williams the commissioner should issue a statement, with the result that the latter announced he would have something to say probably this afternoon.

Governor Fuller expressed considerable reluctance in discussing his controversy with Goodwin, which was fanned into flames by the registrar's story at a legislative hearing last night of what he said happened in the day he was hauled up the carpet before Governor Fuller.

"I am reluctant," said the Governor, "to get into a controversy with a man who doesn't tell the truth whose main object is to secure for himself newspaper advertising without regard to justice and fair dealing."

He said Commissioner Williams had been present in his office when

SPEAKER HULL TO NAME READING PROBERS TODAY

Legislators gathered at the State House today, excitedly discussing the new turn of affairs in connection with the office of Attorney-General K. Reading, were also eagerly awaiting announcement of the members of the special reading investigating committee, which Speaker John C. Hull of the House of Representatives was to name.

The Reading committee will be prominent in the limelight for possibly weeks to come and the appointments of the committee members is one of the most important tasks Speaker Hull has had to meet.

Meanwhile, the district attorney of Worcester County is making belative plans to probe the so-called cattle fraud cases, which form the basis of the new developments in the affairs of the attorney-general's office.

Rumors in these cases which were last, compiling the prosecution of certain persons, including Worcester county, have mysteriously reappeared in the office of an assistant district attorney, leading

4 MARINES KILLED, 9 WOUNDED

Managua, Nicaragua, Feb. 29—Four American marines were killed and nine wounded, one seriously, when a detachment of 26 men was ambushed and attacked by rebels with machine guns between Ocotal and Quilali, according to a report issued by the United States legation today.

The attack took place on Monday afternoon when the Marines were conveying an empty mule train from Ocotal to Quilali. The report of the fight is about 25 miles from Ocotal.

None of the casualties was reported until today, owing to interruption of communications.

Marine airplanes were sent out to obtain further details. It is not yet officially known if the attackers sustained any casualties.

First reports said that the attack was made by bandits. Later information was that Gen. Sandino and a large force of his rebel followers were known to be in the region. The Nicaraguan rebel chief is a soldier of Honduras and has fought with Sandino.

The train, which was escorted by the Marines, was carrying food and supplies for the men on the line.

Following failure to obtain permits to run buses, it was announced today that beginning March 15, train service between 1 a. m. and 4:30 a. m. on the Boston, Revere Beach & Lynn Railroad will be discontinued.

The announcement was made by George W. Wells, vice-president of the road, who stated there will be no change in ferry service and no change in trains between East Boston, Lynn and Winthrop.

The trains to be discontinued are only the three trips between Orient Heights and Lynn and the four trips between Orient Heights and Winthrop, which, according to the building through the stage entrance on West Newton st. Ticket holders will enter by the main doors on Huntington ave.

Persons with neither tags nor tickets will be unable to get within a block of the main doors, for the entrance on West Newton st. to the Mechanics Building and both sides of Huntington ave. will be roped off and closed to pedestrian and to vehicular traffic.

Only automobiles containing persons with tickets or tags will be allowed in the restricted area. Inbound traffic on Huntington ave. will detour along St. Botolph st. via Garrison. Outbound cars will be forced to make a left turn at Dexter st. and proceed out St. Botolph.

In his official order to police, Supt. Michael H. Crowley orders that persons not be permitted to congregate and that pedestrians without tags or tickets be kept outside the ropes.

Capt. James Laffey of the Back Bay traffic squad, and acting Capt. Frank Mullican of the Back Bay station are detailed in charge of the guard.

The main floor of Mechanics Building will open at 6 p. m.

Col. Lindbergh will fly to Boston tomorrow morning, arriving at the airport probably about 10 a. m. A representative of the famous airman was in conference with Mayor Nichols and Director of Public Celebrations Johnson today, and conveyed to them the colonel's request that no public reception be arranged.

Gov. Smith Gives Lindy Aviation Bill Pen

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 29 (INS)—"Wasn't it a little cool up there today?"

"Not at all, Governor, it was just fine."

In this manner Governor Al Smith today greeted Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, America's air hero, when he arrived at the Capitol this afternoon to address a joint session of the members of the New York State Legislature on aviation measures.

Col. Lindbergh reached here from Schenectady at 11:45 o'clock. He had flown to that city from Curtiss Field to avoid the crowd waiting at Albany Field.

Despite the fact that the Lone Eagle's plane was without a fin, he said, and had a damaged rudder, due to an accident in taking off from the Long Island field, he made a perfect landing.

Col. Lindbergh is reported to have flown through a blinding snowstorm on his trip up the Hudson.

"Well," said Governor Smith after he greeted the Lone Eagle, "I have a bill here giving cities of New York State the right to construct airports. I thought I would sign it while you were here, just to show you what New York State thinks about aviation development."

After he had signed the bill the Governor handed the pen to Col. Lindbergh, saying:

"Here's a little souvenir for you."

"I thank you, sir," the Lone Eagle said.

CAMBRIDGE LAND SALES PROBED; QUESTION TITLES

A land deal affecting scores of homes owners in Cambridge was under investigation today, with the possibility foremost that families who bought land from the city in the Ordway's Pit district of North Cambridge may not be able to prove clear title to lots on which they have erected houses. M. Fridolf Jacobson, investigator of graft and corruptions cases under Arthur K. Reading when the latter was Middlesex district attorney, visited City Hall and examined records of sale. Dist. Atty. Hushesss would not deny that Jacobson, who presented much evidence at the Lowell graft trials, was investigating the deal in an official capacity.

3 DEALERS IN STOCKS BANNED

In an affidavit presented to Justice Strong by Deputy Atty-Gen. William L. Millholland, it was charged that the corporations have been collecting large sums of money on a partial payment plan, representing that securities were deposited with the Liberty National Bank.

"A. B. Bonewell was the moving spirit in the organization, but has endeavored to escape all responsibility by not holding any office in the corporation," Atty.-Gen. Ottinger said.

"It is further charged," he added, "that the New England Collateral Shares Corporation was merely a selling agency organized to sell the trustee certificates of the New England Investment Trust, Inc., and that several hundred thousand dollars were sent from Boston to the New York office which were never accounted for."

The fact that the Public Utilities Commission of this State had started an inquiry of installment payment plan stock selling was revealed by the Boston Evening American yesterday. It was learned that the commission was investigating the New England Investors Shares, Inc., which has offices in Devonshire st.

The investigation was begun as a result of the reported failure of the company to furnish information required by law regarding it financial affairs and partial payment plan of stock selling.

BRICKLEY CASE GOES TO JURY

The case of Charles E. Brickley, former Harvard football star, charged with larceny and conducting a bucket shop, went to the jury in the Suffolk Superior Court just before noon today.

The jury will consider two counts of larceny of an indictment alleging the theft of a certificate of 22 shares of Gillette stock and $2195 in cash from Patrick Callahan of Tyler st., an indictment alleging larceny from Mrs. Georgia Poynton of Marlboro and an indictment alleging that Brickley conducted a bucket shop.

SPEAKER HULL PICKS READING PROBERS TODAY

Worcester said that the discovery of the papers may very likely result in new trials and he went into conference on this matter with Frank B. Cummings, head of the division of Animal Industry of the State Department of Conservation.

Atty.-Gen. Reading denied any knowledge of the "lost" papers which were found after so many months on the desk of Asst. Atty.-Gen. F. Delano Putnam.

"This matter is in no way linked with the investigation of the attorney-general which is to be made by the special legislative committee.

But legislators, who have for several days been discussing little else than the Reading case, were today seizing upon this new development as a choice morsel of discussion and some expressed the belief that the special committee may do some questioning on this subject to ascertain that all is right.

The investigation is to be a general one and is to include all the conduct of the attorney-general since he assumed office.

The so-called cattle fraud cases involved Joseph W. Ellsworth, wealthy Barre farmer and banker, and Harry Cohen, North Brookfield cattle dealer. Asst. Atty.-Gen. Putnam had nothing to do with the case and declares he knows nothing about the papers except that he found them last Friday.

No one outside the attorney-general's office knew of this discovery for four days, although Putnam reported it to his chief the next day.

Director Cummings of the division of animal industry today took exception to a statement by another assistant attorney-general who had said that only about $78 was involved.

GREAT GALE SWEEPS BERMUDA; BIG DAMAGE

Hamilton, Bermuda, Feb. 29 (AP)—A 30-minute winter gale struck Bermuda today with an almost cyclonic velocity, causing much property damage on the North Shore. It was the first time in Bermuda's history that a gale hit the island at this time of year.

Parts of the slate roofs of many small houses were blown away, and in Hamilton the Odd Fellows' hall, wrecked in a hurricane last autumn and partly rebuilt, was again levelled.

In 1913 he organized the United States Worsted Co., which included the Lawrence Dye Works, the Uswoco Mills and the Musketaquid Mill at Lawrence, the Saxony and Silesia mills, and the Iroquois Mill at Saugus.

He remained at the head of this corporation until 1921 when he retired from the company, although retaining control over several small mills.

Mr. Adie was understood to have spent $1,000,000 of his fortune in aiding patriotic organizations during the war, and his many charities included the support of many former employes. Also, his contributions to the Episcopal Church at Chestnut Hill were heavy.

He was president of the New Riding Club of the Back Bay, president of the Barnstable County Agricultural Society, Earnshaw Knitting Co. and Strathmore Worsted Mills, and a director of the American Arbitration Association of New York, Dewey & Almy Chemical Co., Home Market Club, Hub Hosiery Mills and St. Luke's Home for Convalescents.

Lindy's Plane Hurts Rudder, But He Keeps on Going

Curtiss Field, N. Y., Feb. 29 (INS)—After Lindbergh's take-off for Albany this morning the plane had gone less than 100 yards when the tail-skid snapped, damaging the rudder. The flier pulled up sharply, glanced out the side door to determine the damage and then waved away the mechanics who had rushed up, and "gave her the gun" again.

The motor roared, the plane humped along, and with a minimum run Lindbergh lifted the damaged tail off the ground, brought the ship up at a sharp angle, banked, and went soaring away.

announcement, have been operating at great expense to the road, with little patronage.

The announcement stated that when the new management assumed control of the road, it was decided that the above train service would have to be discontinued, in order to carry out economies in connection with the electrification plans. Application was then filed by the company with the cities of Lynn, Revere, Boston and Winthrop for permission to run buses, but up to the present time the railroad has failed to receive all permits.

"The railroad has decided that the discontinuance of train service between the above hours can no longer be postponed," the announcement said, "but if the necessary permits are obtained and the approval is secured from the Department of Public Utilities, bus service will be provided. Regular service on the railroad will start at 5:05 a. m. from Boston, and continue through as at present until the last train at 12:35 p. m."

GOODWIN IS REPORTED OUSTED

he talked with Registrar Goodwin, and he thought the commissioner should issue a statement on the conference held today.

STATEMENT "UNTRUE."

The governor declared that "what Goodwin said last night on the salary bill hearing was absolutely untrue."

Registrar Goodwin, when told of what Governor Fuller had said, replied:

"I always tell the truth. Further than that I have no comment to make."

Referring to the occasion on which the registrar was "called on the carpet," Governor Fuller said much was stated that he would have been glad to make public for the good of the service, but was reluctant at that time as he did not wish to humiliate Goodwin.

He added that Commissioner Williams could go as far as he liked in relating what took place, but wanted him to be accurate.

The Governor said, of course, he could not sit idly by and allow untrue statements to pass unnoticed.

The question was then asked the Governor:

"The question of Goodwin's removal is in the hands of Commissioner Williams?"

"Yes," replied the Governor, "and if he needs any advice I can give it to him."

REPORT SPREADS FAST.

In the meantime, while the conference was on in the Governor's office today, Registrar Goodwin was attending a legislative hearing. At the conclusion of the conference while the newspapermen were questioning the Governor, the report that Goodwin had been removed raced around the State House corridors.

The controversy which has been going on for some time came to a head when Registrar Goodwin appeared at a joint hearing of two bills, one to increase the salaries of the Governor and other state executives, and the other calling for a reclassification of state employes.

He charged Governor Fuller with "breaking faith with state employes," saying:

"A few weeks ago, when the Governor was abusing me in his office, he made this statement: 'No one ever crossed me and got away with it.' My answer to this is: No one ever did cross me and get away with it, if I could prevent it."

The registrar said that while he did not think it was necessary for him to apologize or explain his appearance before a committee of the representatives of the people, he felt that thousands of his friends wondered why he is so persistent in advocating fair treatment to state employes.

"In justice to myself I ought to tell them, because His Excellency, the Governor, has stated that I should confine my activities to the duties of my office," he said.

CAMPAIGNED FOR FULLER.

Continuing Registrar Goodwin said it was strange the Governor did not think of that four years ago, "when I sent a letter which he wrote, or rewrote, to the 12,000 state employes, asking them to vote for him, instead of his opponent James Jackson. It may be that he thinks I was performing a public service at that time, for which I should be given special dispensation.

"In that letter to the employes he promised fair treatment if elected. How did he keep this promise?"

Registrar Goodwin then went into the salary increase question concluding with the statement:

"Conditions are getting to be such around the State House now that no one can even whisper because they are so much afraid. But I am not one of that kind and when I have anything to say I'm going to say it."

Alien Property Bill Approved

Washington, Feb. 29 (INS)—The House today approved the conference report on the alien property bill. The bill now goes to the President for signature.

INQUIRY MAY HIT MEN OF PROMINENCE

A far-reaching investigation, which is expected to involve many prominent persons, was begun by the Finance Commission today into the matter of land damages in connection with the widening of Dock sq.

The purpose of the probe, it is said, is to ascertain how the money was paid by the Nichols administration, and to whom it went.

The Fin. Com. is said to be particularly interested in the $235,500 paid by the city to Joseph Paul for the taking of two parcels of land in which he was interested. Paul, who was examined by the Finance Commission, was represented by his son, Milton Paul.

The probe, it is expected, will be directed in an attempt to learn if the money paid Paul was divided, and if so who got part of it.

It is understood that Chairman Charles L. Carr of the commission will summon tomorrow officers and members of the Federal Development Company, some of whose property was taken in the Dock sq. project. The Federal Development Company is composed of well-known Boston business men, although it is said to have a charter of incorporation from the State of Delaware. Robert J. Bottomly was the attorney in the concerns dealing with the city.

The discovery that the Fin. Com. was about to probe into the Dock sq. deal created considerable excitement in and about City Hall. Although rumors have gone about that the authorities were interested, no official action has been taken up to this time.

TEST GALLOWS FOR WOMAN

Montreal, Feb. 29—Carpenters have put together the gallows that will end the life of Julia Palmer McDonald, former Mount Vernon, New York, society girl, on March 23, if the frantic campaign for commutation of her death sentence fails.

On the same date her young husband, George McDonald, is scheduled to die. They were convicted of slaying a Montreal cab driver.

In the city court house overalled workmen labored all day on the gibbet. It is a portable affair that has been shipped across the Dominion many times.

Executioner Ellis has dropped more than 50 unfortunate lawbreakers to their doom with this implement, in a score of cities and towns of Canada.

After the gallows has been tested it will be expressed to Valleyfield, a little community near the border, where the prison bearing the pair is situated.

Mrs. Hazel Greco, Chicago mother of Julia, her foster-mother, Dr. Frances Palmer, of Oklahoma City, and Kenneth Allen, Julia's two-year-old son, are all in hotel here. All visited the girl in her prison cell.

SCOUTS HONOR HEGENBERGER, ILL FLIER

Saddened by the illness of their hero, two Cambridge Eagles, holders of the highest rank in boy scoutdom, in a surprise visit presented wreaths of flowers to Lieut. Albert Hegenberger, Pacific flier, at the Statler hotel today.

The airman has the distinction of being the first honorary member elected to the Eagle branch of the organization. When Arthur Greene, of troop 3 and Leo Atkinson, of troop 17, heard of his threat attempt they donned their uniforms and paid him the honor due him.

Lieut. Hegenberger flew to Boston as pilot for Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh, mother of the nation's ace of aces, who is attending the convention of the National Education Convention.

But upon arrival he found himself mobbed by almost as large crowds as have greeted Lindbergh. Originally a South Boston boy, he stated today, he intended to visit some of his old friends before departing Friday.

Mrs. Lindbergh met the two Boy Scouts, and after posing with them and Lieut. Hegenberger for a photograph and lunch with the flier.

Dr. J. B. Bruce, the hotel physician, subjected Hegenberger to prolonged throat sunshines while movie and still cameras clicked. His method, due to inflammation of the throat, is being overcome.

Hit With Table

WINS DIVORCE

Mrs. Julia Sanborn Bean testified that her husband, whom she married less than one year ago, broke a table over her back because she held a poor bridge hand. The husband, Robert H. Bean of Arlington, did not contest the suit.

SKELETON MAY BE THAT OF HOTEL MAN

Brockton, Feb. 29—Identification of the skeleton found at Bridgewater turned to new channels today. It is now believed Charles Dorgan, 65, formerly of West Bridgewater and later of the Hotel Norris, this city, may be the dead man.

Positive proof that he was the death victim—be it suicide or murder—awaits the return of Dr. J. H. Lawrence of the board of health and physician of Dorgan. Dr. Lawrence was out of town today.

Dr. Ernest E. Dwyer, dentist friend of Dorgan, identified the shotgun found nearby as the property of John Fallon of West Bridgewater. Mrs. Fallon told police she gave it to Dorgan in the spring of 1926, mistaking it as one Dorgan left at the Fallon home some months before.

Mrs. Fallon reported the error incident to Chief Laughton of the Bridgewater police.

The question of positive identification lies in the answer Dr. Lawrence will give as to whether Dorgan wore a truss similar to the one found on the victim.

MRS. COOLIDGE TO SEE MOTHER

Washington, Feb. 29 (AP)—Mrs. Coolidge will leave Washington tonight for Northampton, Mass., to visit her mother, Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, who has been ill with influenza.

There were indications at the White House that Mrs. Goodhue has suffered a slight relapse. She is confined at Cooley Dickinson Hospital in Northampton, where Mrs. Coolidge already has paid her a visit. Mrs. Coolidge will be accompanied to Northampton by Mrs. R. H. Hills, an old school friend, who has been a White House guest.

Mrs. Coolidge's Mother Is Growing Weaker

Northampton, Feb. 29 (AP)—Mrs. Lemira Goodhue, mother of Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, is gradually growing weaker, it was reported today at the Cooley Dickinson Hospital here, where Mrs. Goodhue has been a patient since suffering an attack of influenza sometime ago. It was said while Mrs. Goodhue had recovered satisfactorily from the immediate effects of the illness she failed to gain strength.

Princess Seeks Divorce

Berlin, Feb. 29 (INS)—Princess Victoria Zu Schaumburg-Lippe, 62-year-old sister of the former Kaiser, is planning to divorce her 27-year-old husband, Alexander Zoubkoff, according to the newspaper Zeitung Am Mittag.

'CAPTIVE BRIDE' ASKS DIVORCE

Escape from a house where she was held prisoner by her husband for three days with weak tea and bread as sustenance was told of today in Cambridge Probate Court by Mrs. Mildred A. Broderick, 21, wife of six years and mother of two children.

The incident took place after her return from Canada where she lived for some time with George T. Broderick, she said. She was attired in cheap dresses furnished by her mother, she said. During her stay in Canada she also testified, Broderick left her on the couch, splitting her lip.

Broderick denied all allegations and Judge Charles J. Harris took the case under advisement.

SMITH WILL BE ELECTED PRESIDENT, SAYS GLYNN

Al Smith will be nominated at Houston and will be elected President in November, former Fire Commissioner Theodore A. Glynn predicted in an address at the annual installation of officers of the Quincy Club of East Boston, held in the clubhouse at Day sq.

The former fire commissioner declared he became a candidate for mayor again as soon as the returns were known in the election of 1926 when he was defeated. Three hundred were present at the installation and banquet. Representative William Barker was toastmaster. Other speakers included Representative William Hearn, Registrar of Probate Arthur W. Sullivan and Pres. Terrence Tealey of the club.

Camden, N. J., Feb. 29—A course in etiquette and social graces has been abandoned by the Camden Y. W. C. A. Nobody enrolled.

U. S. OPENS NEW WAR ON 'DOPE' SMUGGLING

Washington, Feb. 29 (AP)—As a militant drive against it in its enforcement of the Harrison narcotic act, the Federal Narcotic Bureau has now started an unrelenting drive against smuggling, which it regards as virtually the only source of supply for illicit drugs.

Federal officials confess that with the present facilities it will be impossible to wipe out the habit in the United States unless the foreign importations are shut off entirely. Commissioner Nutt recommends that states take action to segregate confirmed addicts, which he believes would prevent the spread of the habit.

100,000 ADDICTS

A national survey recently completed by the Public Health Service, the commissioner says, disclosed 100,000 addicts in the United States using about $25,000 worth of drugs annually. Fugitive per year in the drugs are smuggled through New York, he declares, although some also is thrown over ports and across the Mexican border.

Users of opium, he says, are small in number in the United States and nearly all of it comes in through smuggling to Seattle. Virtually none of the drug is manufactured, and cities reaches the illegal trade.

HIGH PRICES

The drug ring operates along systematic lines, federal officials maintain. The large importers sell the drugs in large quantities to the wholesale dealers for as low as $11 an ounce, and it passes through various dealers until the addict is required to pay $40 an ounce, which he purchases in one grain capsules at $4 each.

This enormous profit, they point out, is a constant lure to dope dealers. Commissioner Nutt concludes the idea that added profits are large users of drugs in the United States.

Otto Bismarck to Wed

Berlin, Feb. 29 (AP)—Vanessa Zetting says Prince Otto Von Bismarck, 30-year-old grandson of the Iron Chancellor, is engaged to wed Miss Tenchson, daughter of Prof. Tenchson, Swedish architect. The Prince is secretary of the German legation at Stockholm.

Innocent Owner of Rum Auto Liable to Lose Car

Brockton, Feb. 29—A car seized for carrying liquor, though the property of an innocent owner, should be turned over to the State, a Superior Court jury ruled today.

The car in question was owned by Francis G. Coyle of Taunton and was parked outside an inn when the latter was raided recently. More than 10 quarts of gin were thrust in his parked car, testimony showed.

STORE FIRE ON WINTER ST.

Thousands of pounds of candy were saved by firemen early today when fire was discovered in the building at 14 Winter st., housing Jackson's Candy Shop on the street floor.

The fire started from an overheated stove in the restaurant on the third floor and most of the damage was caused on that floor. The flames were discovered by Patrolman Cunningham of the Lagrange street division.

WORK URGES UNIFORM LAWS TO PROTECT OIL

Washington, Feb. 29 (AP)—Co-operation of the governors of 28 oil-producing states in obtaining uniform state and federal legislation for petroleum conservation was asked today by Secretary Work, chairman of the Federal Oil Conservation Board.

WOMAN GETS 3 YEARS AND IS FINED $1100

Springfield, Feb. 29 (AP)—A sentence totalling three years in jail and fines of $1100 was imposed in Superior Court today on Mrs. Anna Bath, charged with selling liquor and maintaining a common nuisance.

LOS ANGELES IS AT CUBAN PORT ON WAY HOME

Washington, Feb. 29 (INS)—The Navy dirigible Los Angeles, flying back to Lakehurst, N. J., from Panama, arrived at Guantanamo bay, off the Cuban coast, and was successfully moored to the mast on the tender Patoka at 11:30 a. m. today, said a wireless to the Navy department.

The Los Angeles had been in the air 25 hours since leaving France Field, Canal Zone, and averaged 33½ miles an hour against fresh winds.

The dirigible will refuel in Cuba and then resume her trip to the Jersey base.

Navy's Dirigible Plans Face Defeat in House

Washington, Feb. 29 (INS)—Despite the Los Angeles' record-smashing flight to Panama, official indications in the House today threat ened defeat to the Navy's plans for developing lar ge dirigibles as a part of the national defense.

A preparedness bloc in Congress will fight for an $8,000,000 appropriation in the pending naval supply bill for immediate construction of two new Navy dirigibles, larger than are now in use. The money was authorized two years ago, but work has not been started because the House failed to appropriate the necessary funds, even though the Senate favored such action.

2 LEAP YEAR BABIES BORN IN MEDFORD HOSPITAL

Two boy leap year babies were born today at Lawrence Memorial Hospital, Medford. It was only half an hour after midnight when a girl was born to Mrs. Donald MacAuley of 29 Dearborn pl., and at 12:45 A. M. Gahan the stocking inventor. A son was born at 7 o'clock to Mrs. John Conway of 160 Western ave., Malden, with Dr. W. T. Moriarty in attendance.

LICENSE BOARD RULES ON "PEACHES" TOMORROW

The Boston licensing board will hold a public hearing tomorrow morning at 1 Beacon st., to determine whether "Peaches" Heenan Browning will be permitted to perform here next week at the Lido Venice. Mayor Nichols barred "Peaches" from appearing in Boston theaters when she first sought to capitalize her affairs with "Daddy" Browning, New York real estate man. The licensing board has sole jurisdiction over night clubs.

BURNED FIGHTING FIRE IN BRIGHTON HOME

It was only a $25 fire, but John B. Morrison, 14, was burned badly early today in attempting to stamp out the blaze in the basement of his Bostonia ave., Brighton, home.

The fire started from spontaneous combustion. Morrison was burned in the face, chest and both feet. Only for the fact that Dr. John F. Kenny of Surrey st., Brighton, is a fire fan and was on the spot when Morrison was brought out, the boy probably would have suffered more from his burns.

California Takes Over 'Sobering Up' Station

San Diego, Cal., Feb. 29 (AP)—The state of California today took over control of the "sobering up" station at the international border between San Diego and Tia Juana.

The station is a retreat where American visitors returning from the Mexican resort may be "interned" a few hours so they will be in condition to drive their autos.

For several years it was maintained by San Diego County, which was forced to abandon it because of lack of funds. Under the new arrangement the state will maintain two "inspectors" there and will meet all expenses of operation while the county will maintain the buildings.

SEN. REED INDORSED BY MISSOURI DEMOCRATS

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 29 (AP)—While the senior Missouri Senator, James A. Reed, continued his speaking tour of the West, more than 4000 delegates to the State convention here endorsed the platform he had advocated and pledged the State's 24 votes at the Democratic National convention to him as long as he remains a candidate for the Presidency.

Department stores send their clever buyers to Paris to select the imported things women love

FASHION EXPERTS

who buy for 112 great Department Stores

insist on Lux for their own things

MILLIONS and millions of dollars every year are entrusted to these clever women—the department store buyers of frocks and blouses, hosiery, underthings, gloves—the wardrobe of American women.

From the fashion centers of the world—New York, Paris, London—they select the season's most successful styles—the latest things in colors, in fabrics.

More than any other women—because they buy for all women—they must know how lustrous silks and soft woolens and lovely colored cottons will wear—how proper washing will guard their charming texture and color, will keep them looking like new through hard, every day wear.

They know also how easily everyday things, as well as exquisite flower-like garments, can be spoiled by wrong methods of cleansing.

In 112 of the most important stores in America—doing over three-fourths of all the large department store business*—women buyers told us just how they took care of their very own things. And we discovered that for washing their own silks and woolens—

92% of these experts use Lux

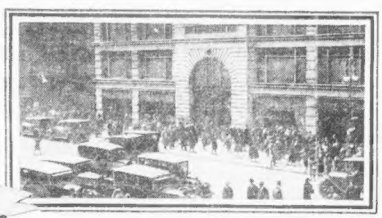
These fashion authorities, knowing the nature of fine fabrics and that the choice of soap is all-important to their life and newness, will take no chances.

They insist upon Lux for all their own things—for stockings and gloves and lingerie, negligées and sweaters, their sheerest and their sturdiest wash frocks. And they buy it in the familiar blue package found, investigations show, in 8 out of 10 representative homes in cities from coast to coast.

* Over three-fourths of all the large department store business in the United States is done by the stores of the following 26 cities, where 92% of the buyers interviewed use Lux:

Boston	Indianapolis
Providence	Chicago
New York	Milwaukee
Newark	Minneapolis
Philadelphia	St. Paul
Baltimore	St. Louis
Washington	New Orleans
Pittsburgh	Kansas City
Buffalo	Denver
Cleveland	Los Angeles
Akron	San Francisco
Detroit	Portland
Cincinnati	Seattle

Lux keeps things new-looking, makes them last far longer than they do washed with other soaps—flakes, chips or cakes. The rich, safe Lux suds cleanse without rubbing—keep silks, chiffons, woolens, colored cottons like new.



Leading American department stores do a business of 2½ billion dollars annually. Like the great movie studios in Hollywood and the gorgeous musical shows of New York—department store buyers use Lux because it saves fabrics. And millions of women, customers of these very stores, use Lux, to keep clothes like new. Investigations show that 80 to 95% of the women interviewed in the cities listed above are Lux users.

LUX KEEPS FABRICS NEW-LOOKING TWICE AS LONG

AIRSHIP WILL DROP MEN ONTO NORTH POLE

Leningrad, Soviet Russia, Feb. 29 (1928)—For the first time in history human beings will drop out of the skies upon the North Pole when Gen. Umberto Nobile, of Italy, makes his second polar dash in a dirigible.

Three Russian scientists will make the trip with the Nobile expedition.

According to information received by the Russian academy of sciences, it is planned to bring the dirigible to a stop over the pole and cast out anchors upon the ice from an altitude of approximately 200 feet.

Rope ladders will be lowered so that at least three of the scientists on board may descend to take soundings of the sea beneath the ice floe and make other observations. The scientists will spend about five hours "upon the pole" if possible.

Preparations for the flight are being pushed here by scientists who expect to accompany the expedition. It is understood the expedition will be made up of 26 persons. The start will be made at the end of April or early in May when atmospheric conditions are most favorable.

The airship will be piloted from Italy to Gatchina field, near Leningrad, where favorable weather will be awaited for the dash to Kings Bay Spitzbergen, thence to the North Pole. It is understood Alaska will be the ultimate destination.

Gen. Nobile piloted the Norge on the Amundsen-Ellsworth polar flight two years ago.

MAYOR FLAYS 'L' STOCKHOLDERS

If the Legislature considers the wishes of Elevated stockholders, it will be impossible to enact legislation fair to the Hub, says the public, Mayor Nichols asserted today in approving the action of the Chamber of Commerce favoring public control of the road.

The mayor's assertion was made in a letter to former Mayor Andrew J. Peters, president of the Chamber. In his letter the mayor said:

"A reasonable act is likely to be accepted by the Elevated, even if it is less favorable to the stockholders than they would like to have it.

"The city of Boston has an interest of great import in this whole question, for not only have we an investment of nearly $15,000,000 in subways operated by the Elevated under existing conditions, but we have a duty to prepare for suitable transportation so that our commercial growth and prosperity shall be reasonably supported.

"The so-called Hartman plan has serious defects, in my opinion, inasmuch as it makes a distinct change in the standards by which our transportation service has been developed.

"It seems to me a great mistake to depart from the principle that the car rider, as far as he is able, shall pay for the service which he enjoys. It may be that the fare comes from the car rider, united augment the enormous transportation facilities required. In that case, as at present, that part which he cannot support must be taken up through general taxation."

41 PLANES HUNT 3 LOST FLIERS

Washington, Feb. 29 (AP)—What was described by Navy officials as the greatest naval search ever undertaken among men was pushed with renewed vigor today as 41 aircraft scanned the Chesapeake Bay district for Cmdr. S. G. Ellyson and his two companions.

Virtually no effort as to what happened to them has been abandoned, although the search was being pursued relentlessly, the Navy Department was slowly giving up hope that they would also be found.

All regions of the Chesapeake area being subjected to the most extensive naval, marine and army airplane search ever undertaken by the United States. The principal naval activities included Lakehurst, N. J., aircraft carrier Langley, began the search in the northern waters of the bay and the Hampton roads of Norfolk early today.

Eighteen airplanes from the airplane carrier Langley and the accounting fleet anchored at Hampton Roads resumed their exploration of the coast and waters of Virginia, North Carolina and lower regions of the bay, about even time airplanes from the naval air station at Hampton Roads.

SEE FAILURE IN KELLOGG PLAN TO BAR WAR

Washington, Feb. 29 (INS)—"All war is an assault upon the stability of human society and should be suppressed in the common interest."

Diplomatic circles here were stirred today by this declaration of Secretary Kellogg in his reply to the last French note on the Briand proposal for a treaty to outlaw war.

No informed person here expects that anything definite will come of the present effort between France and the United States, for the Kellogg proposal disregards the cardinal point of French policy—security—and is certain to be answered either by rejection or qualifications.

Again rejecting the French attempt to limit the force of the proposed treaty to wars of "aggression," Kellogg challenged the good faith of Foreign Minister Briand and renewed the United States' demand for a multilateral treaty between all the world powers forever renouncing war as an instrument of national policy.

Recalling that the renunciation of war framed by the recent Pan American conference at Havana was accepted by 12 members of the League of Nations, Kellog incorporated the suggestion of an intimation in his statement of the League's relation to the negotiations.

Paris Is Disappointed by Reply; Sees No Anti-War Pact

Paris, Feb. 29—Pessimism was the general reaction of the French press today to Secretary of State Kellogg's response to Foreign Minister Briand's latest note outlining France's views on a pact to outlaw war. Failure of the present negotiations between France and the United States was freely predicted. Kellogg's note, it is believed here, has left little hope for reconciling the French and American viewpoints. Most of the French papers lamented the fact that the United States had failed to consider the importance of France's obligations to the League of Nations.

CROPPING BILL UP TOMORROW

Proponents of the anti-cropping bill, which is to have its second legislative hearing tomorrow at 10:30, were today planning for an outpouring of dog lovers, which it is expected will fill the Augustus P. Gardner Auditorium to capacity.

Dr. Francis P. Rowley, head of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, who sponsored the bill, will head its supporters, and speakers will include Clarence M. Gray, Mrs. Palmer Jones and Mrs. Louis Lichtenstein, all dog fanciers.

At the first hearing the audition was filled, and there were so many speakers for the bill that the committee was unable to reach the opponents. They will be heard tomorrow after Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Lichtenstein and Mr. Gray have spoken.

According to Mrs. Lichtenstein an even larger crowd than at the first hearing is expected, in a determined effort to convince the committee the majority of dog lovers are opposed to cropping.

Rely upon Your ELECTRICIAN

When He Advises More Adequate Wiring

HEED your Electrician's advice on adequate wiring—when you plan your new home—or re-wire your old one. He knows from experience how few people realize the necessity for plenty of convenience outlets and a really complete wiring installation.

¶Electric service adds so much to the comfort and beauty of your home—through Illumination, Refrigeration, Heating, Cooking, and labor-saving appliances—that your wiring really demands the attention of an expert.

¶Electricity can do much for you—it will—if you consult your Electrician and follow his advice.

FOOTBALL DOCTOR SUES FOR SERVICES

Notice of suit for $600 against the city of Revere was filed today with City Treasurer William H. Keevey by counsel for Dr. John V. McMeekin of North Shore road for compensation for services rendered by the physician to members of the high school football team last fall.

According to the doctor, he was hired by the school committee at a salary of $400 for the football season. He declares the bill was not paid because Mayor Walsh said the school committee exceeded its legal rights, the item not having been included in the budget.

ASKS VETS' AID FOR BLAKE IN 'FRAUD' CASE

Actuated by the arrest of two men for the alleged defrauding of disabled veterans, Commander John H. Wallace of the Massachusetts branch of the Veterans of Foreign Wars issued a reminder to Bay State veterans that his organization is always ready to assist them with their claims.

Commander Wallace also urged veterans to come forward with any information they may have to assist Capt. William J. Blake, regional head of the Veterans' Bureau in Boston, in the house-cleaning he has undertaken since the timely discovery of the alleged wrongs.

"There is no reason for a veteran to pay out money to any man for assistance in securing satisfactory results on claims," said Commander Wallace.

"Our organization pays a salary to the department adjutant to give assistance to disabled veterans or to the dependents of our departed comrades.

"All veterans who have paid for the adjudicating of their claims are urged to call at the office of the Department of Massachusetts, V. F. W., room 190A, State House, and assist in bringing about the immediate elimination of unlawful practices."

SEEK GRAND JURY PROBE OF ARLINGTON FRAUD

Plans area ader way today to bring about a grand jury investigatio nof alleged forgery of nomination papers in connection with the coming town election to be held in Arlington Monday. Following a local police investigation, the town's board of registrars announced the forged papers, bearing names of bogus candidates for elective offices, had been circulated.

The alleged fraudulent document which brought on the investigation was filed on February 18 by Frederick O. White of 100 Everett st., Arlington, Civic League candidate for park commissioner. It purported to be a nomination paper endorsing the candidacy of 12 aspirants to the office of town meeting member from precinct 1, Arlington. White said the paper had been left at Civic League headquarters.

WOMAN TELLS MAIL PLOT TO 'KIND' OFFICER

Chicago, Feb. 29 (AP)—A police officer last night offered to take care of Mrs. Katherine Cleaver's canaries and her dog while she is detained in the Evergreen Park mail train robbery investigation.

Seventeen minutes later she had given him details on which a federal grand jury indicted her husband, Charles (Limpy) Cleaver, William Donovan and Frank (Bozo) Meccia.

"I was kind to her. That's how I got Katherine Cleaver's confession," said Lieut. Michael Naughton.

TELLS HER STORY

"She reminded me, as I sat there, of my own mother. I wouldn't want to know she was lying. I told Mrs. Cleaver so. Then she began to cry.

"'You are very kind,' she said. 'Then she told her story.'"

Mrs. Cleaver's story was that she overheard Cleaver, Donovan, Meccia and three others, whose names have been withheld, plotting on the night of Feb. 39. The night before the robbery another conference was held at the Cleaver home, she said, at which details were completed.

Meccia, she said, brought along the two sticks of dynamite used in blowing the safe of the Grand Trunk mail car. Cleaver furnished disguises—hunting suits and masks, she said.

TELEPHONE WIRES TAPPED

At 2 o'clock on the morning of the robbery—February 25—Mrs. Cleaver said she got breakfast for the men. Her statement related that she made pancakes and in preparing them scraped the bottom of her flour bin. It was in this bin 10 hours later that police found $17,125 in cash and a $600 bond, presumably loot from the mail robbery.

Mrs. Cleaver told the officers that Donovan's wife "gave the gang away" by calling the Cleaver home a few hours after the holdup and expressing delight over the big "haul" that had been made. The Cleaver telephone wires had been tapped by police.

Wow! 30 More? Doggone Cummings, Says Mooty

Here's Mooty, spokesman for his canine pals, who growled his opinions today on the proposed 30-day extension of the dog-restraining order.

Mooty nipped at an imaginary flea and settled down by the stove with his muzzle on his forepaws.

"What is it you want?" he asked. "A statement on Frank Cummings' decree that we fellows be tied up another 30 days, or until April 15, eh? Well, if you want to know, he gives me a pain in the neck. From the collar and leash? Well, you might put it that way.

"I've been stuck inside now almost three months. When I do get out it's on the end of a leash. How the devil can a fellow get his morning constitutional that way?

"Out in the backyard on December 14 I buried the most remarkable leg-of-lamb bone you ever laid eyes on. Have I got it up? Not much. Time we get out it will have sprouted.

"Out of touch with all my friends, too, mister. Haven't seen that little chow across the street since the ban went on. We did have the darndest arguments about that black cat two houses up.

"It seems I get in the darndest trouble at home now, too. This last guy that's my boss came through with a little ham knuckle the other day and when I tried to bury it in the corner of the kitchen over by the radiator I got a scolding for my pains.

"And it's presidential year besides. At our November meeting we half endorsed Hoover, but I understand most of the boys have switched around to Mayor Bauer since. But what good will that do us if we can't get out to vote?

"Oh, hum! Just tell 'em Cummings is making us lead a dog's life. You might say that he's the leash of our worries, though."

SARGENT MEMORIAL FUND NOW TOTALS $793,307

Subscriptions to the Charles Sargent Memorial Fund for the endowment of the Arnold Arboretum now amount to $793,307, or nearly four-fifths of the $1,000,000 goal.

The remaining $206,000 is urgently needed and it is the desire of the committee to have the fund complete by March 22, the anniversary of the death of Prof. Sargent.

Among recent contributions to the chairman, William C. Endicott of 71 Amba building, are the following: Miss Fanny P. Mason, $2500; Charles E. Sampson, $1000; Richard D. Sears, $1000; anonymous, $2000; M. E. G. in memory of Mrs. H. E. Gale, $100; Mrs. Henry V. Greenough, $500; Arthur N. Millikan, $500; Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Spalding, $1000; Mrs. Thomas D. Gannett, $250; Henry L. Shattuck, $250.

BARS FIREMEN AS AUTO BURNS; HELD FOR TRIAL

Insistence on his right to put out his own fire when it blazes on his own truck coat Robert E. Cunniff of Massachusetts ave., Dorchester, a hearing in East Cambridge Court today that resulted in his being bound over to the grand jury for attempting to prevent firemen from extinguishing a fire.

Cunniff's truck caught fire February 16 in Belmont. Chief William H. Hill and Hoseman James Tierney of Belmont took of Cunniff pulling Tierney away from the blaze. Judge Stone explained the maximum sentence for the offence is seven years. He found probable cause.

BOOKS MISSING IN SUIT AGAINST BOSTON BANKER

Worcester, Feb. 29 (AP)—A sensation occurred in Superior Court equity session today when Asent Harry H. Dorr of the Waukanuit Mills of Farnumsville, principal witness in the equity suit of S. Sister & Sons, Inc., against Jacob F. Brown, a Boston banker, said he had been unable to find some of the books used in taking the mills inventory. "I am not trying to conceal the books," he said, "and would gladly bring them here if they could be located."

AUTO THIEVES FLEE IN CRASH

After stealing two automobiles, wrecking one and abandoning both, besides wrecking a dairy wagon and injuring the horse, two men made their escape in Brookline today in spite of efforts of several men to capture them.

A description of the two men was flashed to all parts of the town by the new police signal system and police believed their arrest would soon follow.

They first stole a car in Medford, police say, and wrecked it in a collision on Summer ave., Brookline, with a Deerfoot Farm wagon. Abandoning the automobile they dashed to Mason ter., where they took the automobile of Harry Bell of 46 Mason ter.

They then drove to Beacon st., and to throw pursuers off their trail, they boarded a trolley car. Before leaving their actions suspicious the conductor grappled with them and they hurriedly leaped from the car, making their escape across lots.

OPPOSE MERGER OF STATE AND PARK POLICE

Opponents were in the large majority today at a State House hearing before the legislative committee on state administration in the matter of a proposed consolidation of the Metropolitan park police with the state police under a commissioner of public safety.

The hearing was on two bills—one proposing the consolidation and containing recommendation by Governor Fuller, as contained in his inaugural, and the other advocating transfer of the Metropolitan police under the department of public safety, the reorganization of the Metropolitan district commission and the placing of Metropolitan parkways and boulevards under the State highway department.

Former Rep. Elijah Adlow, representing Mayor Nichols and the City of Boston, urged favorable report on the measures, or at least a resolve for an investigation into the situation.

Civil Service Commr. Goodwin spoke in favor of the proposed measures, but asserted the Metropolitan police should continue to be subject to civil service rules and la w.

Renton Whidden, sponsor of the bills, said he would be satisfied with adoption of a resolve for an investigation of the project.

Opposing the measures were a large number, including Representative Beck of Chelsea, George W. Arbuckle, attorney, of Quincy, Thomas Hurley of Worcester, president of the Massachusetts Police Association; Mayor Thomas H. Osgeath of Quincy, President Ivory H. Moss of the Hyde Park Chamber of Commerce; Representative Josiah Babcock, member of the Milton board of selectmen; Charles L. Allen, Boston Chamber of Commerce; Clyde Aldrich and Albert Dwight of the Massachusetts Police Association; John J. Donovan of Newton, Michael McDermott of Fall River, Ray G. Dugeth and Patrick J. Brophy.

DELAY ACTION ON NEW BRIGHTON HIGHWAY

The legislative committee on municipal finance today reported "referring to the present annual session" on the recommendation of the metropolitan planning division for the construction of a highway from a point on Harvard ave. in Brighton to the bridge across the Charles river at the end of North Harvard st.

Tomorrow is the last day for filing the state income tax returns.

All returns bearing a postmark later than midnight, March 1, will be subject to penalty.

The office of the income division of the State Department of Corporations and Taxation at 10 Court st., this city, will be open Thursday until 5 o'clock in the afternoon as usual, but returns put in the mails after that time so as to bear a postmark of 12 o'clock or earlier Thursday night will be accepted as on time.

All returns should be made to the state income tax director, at the above address.

Colby Divorce Denied

Paris, Feb. 29 (INS)—The Versailles Divorce Court today refused to entertain the petition of Bainbridge Colby, former American Secretary of State, for a divorce from Natnalie Sedgwick Colby. The court held Colby's residence within the jurisdiction of the tribunal was insufficient for action.

TRAPPED CHILD SAVED AT FIRE BY WOMAN

A four-and-a-half-year-old boy trapped in a smoke-filled cellar at 124-126 Worcester st., Whatertown, was lifted through a window to safety today by Mrs. Charles Harris, who lives on the second floor.

The boy was Thomas J. Gallagher, Jr., whose family occupies the first floor and who had gone to the cellar to investigate the smoke.

Alarmed on return, the child found the stairway aflame and his escape cut off and screamed for help. His cries were repeated by his mother, who had 10-months-old Dorothea Gallagher in her arms.

Mrs. Harris, who and taker her own five children in safety went down into her part of the cellar and opening a window about it to the boy to climb over the partition. Tiggins was unable to negotiate the height, but squirmed through a broken pane and was hauled through the window to safety by Mrs. Harris.

The heads of both families were away, but the women succeeded in getting out all the children.

BETTY ALDEN PREDICTS BIG SPORTS SURPRISE

Private Race Track on Goodwin's Hamilton Estate to Be Opened Some Time This Spring

SOMETHING VERY SPECIAL IN THE WAY OF SMART SPORTS events is likely to be added to the summer schedule. Locally, there is no dearth of race meets, hunts meets and horse shows wherewith to interest those who find delight in stiff cross-country going on spirited mounts. But, however rich is the local fare, an addition is more than welcomed. Especially when the addition is the formal opening of a private race track with a meet having the United Hunts' sanction. And more specially still when Augustus F. Goodwin of Hamilton is owner of the track and is to be host.

THE VERY SPLENDIDLY ARRANGED PRIVATE RACE TRACK at the magnificent Hamilton estate of the Goodwins is to be completed some time in the spring and christened with high ceremonial and a dazzling race card. Only last June, at the opening of his private race track in Framingham, John B. Macomber entertained sumptuously. It was a very special occasion, with a race card second to none. Mr. Goodwin is more than likely to top even so lavish a hospitality as the "maceland" opening. The Hamilton affair is awaited with interest by the sports sets to which the Goodwins belong.

MR. AND MRS. Q. A. SHAW McKEAN OF THE NORTH SHORE and commonwealth ave. are doing a foreign jaunt that takes them somewhat off the beaten highway of tourist travel. Just now they are passengers on the Paris taking her eastward way to French shores. Eventually they move still farther eastward and arrive at Trieste and the Dalmatian coast. Doing the Dalmatian coast is getting to be more or less "the thing" for those so sufficiently leisured and in a worldly way so endowed that seeing the world's interesting spots is a pleasant routine of every year.

OF COURSE, NO ARTIST, CERTAINLY NOT ONE OF MRS. McKEAN'S attainments, could or would travel through Europe without gathering inspiration at every turn. As Margarett Sargent, the very handsome spouse of the polo-playing Shaw McKean is already a notable in the fraternity with a studio set up in Boston and numerous exhibitions, mainly metropolitan, already to her credit. At this time last season she was putting on a "one man" show at the Kraushaar Galleries in New York, and this year's foreign jaunt follows immediately after a similar exhibition at the same galleries.

MRS. SHAW'S GENIUS HAS TWO EXPRESSIONS, SCULPTURE and drawing; and those who very infrequently gain admittance to the St. Botolph st. studio are of one opinion, that here is no society dilettante at the arts, but an artist seriously embarked on a successful career. The steamer Paris also has aboard on this present crossing Miss Alice Sargent and Mrs. Frank Bemis, traveling together on pleasure bent. Durell Hall of Milton and Henry H. Crapo of Boston and New Bedford also are passengers on the Paris, on travels that blend business and sightseeing with nicety.

MUSICALLY SPEAKING, THERE IS NO DIMINUENDO SO FAR as concert evenings go, nor in the "patroness" list invariably compiled to give a cachet to warblings or fiddlings. For the Boston Sinfonietta in Jordan Hall next Wednesday evening patronage is mainly from those always ardently responsive when music is the theme of the evening—Samuel Endicott, Mrs. Oliver Crocker Stevens, Mrs. Daniel de

PSYCHISTS PLACE BOY IN GLASS CASE TO TEST SPIRIT

London, Feb. 29 (AP)—Eight-year-old Douglas Drew, who in psychic circles bears the reputation of being possessed of a poltergeist or unruly spirit, must have felt like a gold fish in a glass bowl today. For the purposes of observation Douglas began sittings at the national laboratory of psychical research in a great glass enclosure with Director Harry Price and others peering at him from all sides for an hour.

His relatives and friends claim that in a room when this fair-haired, blue-eyed boy is around chairs frequently slide about the floor, tea-pots flit from one side of the room to the other and equally inexplicable things occur. Sir Oliver Lodge is among those taking an interest in the tests.

BROADCASTS APPEAL FOR CHILDREN'S MISSION

Dr. Christopher R. Great Story on Life; Gripping as a Novel; Fascinating as a Movie

CHAPTER 14

UNTIL recently no one had ever seen a vitamin, nor had the chemical laboratory isolated one; 16 years ago no one had ever heard of one. And yet a real science of food is impossible without a knowledge of vitamins. Without vitamins (or something just as good) there is no normal growth, health, reproduction, or living out the span of life.

Scurvy was known to the ancient Greeks, and through the centuries ravaged armies, crews of ships, and explorers cut off from fresh fruit and vegetables; seven years ago no one suspected the existence of the antiscorbutic vitamin. Thousands of children have hobbled out a pitiable existence on a rickety frame; until recently no one suspected it was because of lack of a specific nutritious antirachitic vitamin now known to exist in certain foods. About thirty years ago it was known that chickens fed on polished rice developed beriberi, and that the sick chickens fed on whole rice recovered; but no one then suspected the existence of an antineuritic vitamin in the polishings of rice or in milk.

Innumerable experiments have now proved the existence of four, and possibly five, vitamins, and their necessity for human life and the metabolism of all food. Because of their minute amounts, their close association with the complex food substances, their nonpresence in diet spoiled by manipulation, and because no good controls could be devised in testing, they defied isolation. But, by relying on feeding and by huge industry and patience, definite results have been obtained —and civilization again catches up with desiccated and tin-canned progress. In other words, the human body could find all it needed in the old vegetable garden and kitchen when food began to be refined, the vitamins were thrown out with the screenings.

FAT-SOLUBLE A (because soluble in fat), or antirachitic vitamin, is probably first in importance. All animals experimentally treated, die if their diet contains no vitamin A. It is presumably necessary for all higher animal life. It is known to be necessary for growth. Rachitic children presumably suffer from lack, among other things, of vitamin A. With vitamin A their bones

URGE HUB TAX LIMIT OF $12.50

The tax limit for Boston was today recommended by the legislative committee on municipal finance to be set at $12.50 a thousand of valuation.

This amount is 25 cents less than Mayor Nichols asked for and $1.40 more than was advocated by the Boston Finance Committee.

The committee also reported a bill to provide funds for construction of new hospital buildings for Boston. This bill authorizes $2,000,000 to be borrowed outside the debt limit, with an additional $1,000,000 to be taken either from the tax levy or from bonds inside the debt limit.

PHONE CO. AUTHORIZED TO SPEND $2,667,549

Expenditure of $2,667,549 for new construction and improvements in plant, was authorized today at the monthly appropriation meeting of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. executive committee. The authorizations are apportioned as follows: Metropolitan Boston $1,-750,- in other parts of Massachusetts $310,137; Maine $57,270; New Hampshire $38,186; Vermont $29,229; Rhode Island $86,501.

MODEL WEDS PUBLISHER

Miss Dorothy James Smart, most photographed artist's model in the United States, is honey-mooning today with her husband, Edward Lyman Bill, New York publisher. The ceremony was performed in Hitchcock Memorial Church in Scarsdale, N. Y. She is a southern beauty and was chosen last year as one of four American models for Paris style show.

PLANNED TO 'SHOOT WAY OUT'

The story of a plot by Jerry Gedzium ("Jerry the Pole"), electrocuted early yesterday, and others to effect a delivery of prisoners from the East Cambridge jail was related in Middlesex Superior Court today by Thomas F. Sullivan, an attorney.

Sullivan told the story to Judge Dunaque just before Sullivan's client, Leo P. Quinn of Cambridge, was sentenced to seven to ten years in state prison for alleged robbery while armed. A jury found him guilty.

Rollo E. Hopper and George Vetmare, both of Boston, who had been acquitted of the same charge but who were being held on a charge of conspiring in the robbery, were discharged when the charge was not pressed.

PLANNED TO START FIGHT.

A fourth member of the alleged band, Antonio Pecunas, pleaded guilty to the robbery charge several days ago and now began a sentence of from 25 to 30 years.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Warren L. Bishop today had asked that Quinn be given no long a sentence as Vetmare, he entered pose and told the court that he was informed by Sullivan a short time ago that Gedzium and two others in East Cambridge jail were planning to shoot their way out and wanted Quinn in the plot.

According to the asserted plan, two of their number were to start a fight between themselves when only one or two guards were present, and then upon the guards rushing to separate the men to "jump" the guards, take their guns and shoot their way out, releasing as many prisoners as possible.

ASKS FOR LENIENCY.

Atty. Sullivan and he told Judge Bishop told Sheriff Burns that Quinn had given Gedzium was transferred to State Prison immediately.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Bishop today admitted to the court that Sullivan had told of the alleged plot, pointed Dunaque and he believed Quinn's story should be taken into consideration, and that two years' confinement would be seven to ten years.

Quinn, when asked if he wished to say anything, broke into tears, controlled his voice with difficulty, thanked the court and sat down.

STONEHAM COP FACES TRIAL FOR KILLING BOY

A complaint charging manslaughter was issued today in Woburn District Court against Patrolman Daniel McKinnon, who is alleged to have shot and killed James McGill of Wakefield early Sunday morning.

The complaint was issued by Judge Morton on application of McKinnon's superior, Police Chief Samuel Green of Stoneham. The case will be tried Friday. It was believed that Chief Green took this action in order that his officer may be cleared of blame.

McGill is said to have shouted, "Throw up your hands," to a group of policemen, including McKinnon, who had overtaken the automobile and were about to investigate to see if he was in a condition to drive. McKinnon fired in return. McGill had no gun, it was discovered later.

BARE 'MURDER MACHINE' IN MINE WAR

Wilkes Barre, Pa., Feb. 29 (INS)—Charging that "a murder machine" controlled the Lehigh anthracite region, for operators and outlaws working in suppression by means of murder, in violation of the Lehigh Valley Workers' Relief Bureau, today asked the United Mine Workers to "save the union."

With the union organizers' slain, the bureau charged, Lehigh Valley operators, last year signed a murderous lease to further operate and murder strikers, they charged. Under this lease, the bureau said, two strikers had been killed and dozens shot, with two strikers removed from "closed mines."

$15,000 Tapestry Recovered

New York, Feb. 29 (AP)—A $15,000 seventeenth century tapestry, reported stolen from the wall of the lobby of the Hotel Ritz-Carlton last month, has been recovered in a fifth avenue shop. The shop keeper said he had purchased it for $1,200 from a woman.

She's 72, but "Only 18"

Mrs. Emma M. Brown, 72 years a resident of 85 Allston today celebrated her eighteenth birthday anniversary in years not and feels, she will live a long years of happiness and usefulness with two birthdays removed from "closed sixteen."

TELEPHONE BILL IS ADVERSELY REPORTED

The legislative committee on metropolitan affairs today reported adversely on the petition of the Boston Suburban Electric Companies for an increase in telephone rates. The committee reports it has been advised in writing by the department of public utilities that reductions and changes have been made in the rates since adoption of the legislation granting the petition. The committee was prepared by Massachusetts Electric Companies.

Sanford Riley, state commissioner of corporations, submitted documents which would show a loss of $40,000 under the proposed plan.

The bill provides that thereafter each profit realized by the public utilities fund and the balance on hand for benefit of the subscribers' families and the proceeds of the sale.

URGE MORE PAY FOR STATE'S PRISONERS

Additional compensation for inmates of state prisons, Massachusetts Reformatory and state institutions for feeble minded was urged by several prominent men and women today at a hearing before the legislature committee on public institutions. The committee was prepared by Massachusetts Civic League.

Sanford Riley, state commissioner of corporations, submitted documents which would show a loss of $40,000 under the proposed plan.

The bill provides that thereafter each profit realized by the public utilities fund and the balance on hand for benefit of the subscribers' families and the proceeds of the sale.

Two young men held up the Dan Jan lunchcart, corner of Bowen [illegible] and Broadway, Everett, just after midnight and escaped with the contents of the till, about $75.

The young men, one armed, entered the lunch cart, passing the night there with Daniel Jandoli of Everett at the time. Jandoli was [illegible] and got away.

Two Dressmakers Dance With Prince

Dartford, England, Feb. 29 (AP)—The Prince of Wales danced with two attractive young dressmakers, one blonde and the other brunette, at the Workingmen's Club here.

It was "terribly thrilling to dance with the Prince," said Ivy Nesbit, blonde.

To Ivy Bonnie, brunette, it was "dreadfully embarrassing."

Both girls came through the experience with smiles and smiles, however.

The blonde Ivy declared the prince was a wonderful dancer but that she managed to keep step with him and "after the dance he gave me his armchair of honor and asked me to have a cigarette."

The brunette Ivy was very coy at the outset, but soon got the knack on the prince when he told her he couldn't dance the Yale version as it was too old. "But, you are doing the Yale steps now," uttered brunette Ivy.

"Am I really? Well, I didn't know it," replied the prince.

The brunette Ivy then confided that she started at once to think, "Of course, you are used to being seized at because you are a prince."

The prince laughed and said, "Well, I have been often pounced upon, but never to swing and swaddle about."

The prince spent part of the evening in the bar chatting with the men, one of whom treated him with a glass of ale.

When the prince left company awarded dancing and tried to shake his hand. Many succeeded, and those who failed sounded their horns in saluting him as the car

CHARGES 'PLOT' IN CHICAGO TO THREATEN U. S. SCHOOLS

BUFFALO SUPERINTENDENT IS CHIEF N. E. A. SPEAKER

—but out of contact with the great problem of education.

"While they did not reply directly to President Lowell, I was pleased to note the contrasting tones of Governor Fuller's and President Faunce's speeches.

"I do not believe education is costing too much. The big thing is to educate irrespective of cost.

"There is democracy in educational life as well as in social and governmental life. If the educational system fails to be democratic and to include the welfare of the whole people instead of small, selective groups, it not only fails, but the whole democratic system of government fails."

20,000 DELEGATES

There are 20,000 delegates to the conference in Boston today, according to the official estimate of association officials. Between eight and ten thousand of these have registered.

The perfunctory performance of electing department officers was under way at Mechanics Building today, the delegates balloting for a slate, which contained but one candidate for each office as yesterday announced.

The committee on resolutions met in session today and will report to-morrow.

One unique recommendation before it was the suggestion that all school children and adults be fingerprinted during the 1930 state and federal school census.

MRS. KAHN SPEAKS

This plan was outlined in a letter sent by Mrs. C. L. Colby of Santa Monica, Cal., to Dr. William J. Cooper, state superintendent of California schools.

One of the most important issues before the committee was the inequality of educational opportunities in the rural districts as compared with the programs of the larger communities.

The qualifications of a successful school superintendent include scholarship, background, character, self-control, resistance, leadership and ability as an organizer, John H. Beveridge of Omaha told the delegates.

Florence Kahn, member of Congress from California, arrived in Boston today and was the chief speaker at a session of the national council of administrative women in education held at the Boston Public Library.

Mrs. Caroline S. Woodruff of Castleton, Vt., is president of the council.

A tribute to Boston as a convention city and to the newspapers for their co-operation was voiced by J. W. Crabtree of Washington, secretary of the National Education Association. He said:

"Boston has lived up to our greatest expectations as a convention city. The convention is one of the largest and most successful ever held by the N. E. A. Certainly the program is the strongest ever presented.

"All appreciate most heartily the wonderful co-operation of the newspapers. They have helped tremendously by the generous space afford of the proceedings.

"The Boston newspapers have been a big surprise to all hands in this respect and have had a salary effect on delegates in that the published accounts of its matters more clearly in their minds."

Organized influences, hostile to the best interests of education, have caused Chicago to become the victim of the superintendent and the "machine stock of the world" and are threatening the efficient management of schools in many other communities, Dr. E. C. Hartwell, superintendent of Buffalo, N. Y., schools, said today at the general session.

This evening, at Hotel Statler, the school of education of New York University will act as host at a dinner to more than 200 educators.

John J. Tigert, U. S. commissioner of education; Dr. Herbert S. Weet, Dr. Elmer E. Brown and Dr. John W. Withers will speak.

OFFER PLATFORM

A platform, drafted by five superintendents, and offered as a standard for incorporation into the statutes of every state, was read by Hartwell as follows:

"We believe: The functions of the board of education should be legislative and judicial, which functions we understand to include the selection of the superintendent and the approval or disapproval of policies and expenditures;

"That the superintendent should be the chief executive officer of the board of education, that he should be selected for a term of years and that he should sit as a non-voting member with right of discussion in all board and committee meetings;

"That all associate and assistant superintendents, supervisors, directors, principals, teachers and those directly charged with business affairs should be directly responsible to the superintendent and appointed by the board of education only upon his recommendation;

"That the adoption of textbooks, the approval of courses of study, schools sites and architectural plans and the selection of school equipment should be made by the board of education only upon recommendation of the superintendent;

"That the superintendent should be held responsible for the preparation and presentation of an annual building program and salary schedule, that he should have executive control of all transfers and assignments of teachers, principals, supervisors and other employes as well as the transfer, promotion and classification of pupils."

Those associated with Hartwell in the presentation of the platform were Zones Scott, Frank Cody, Paul C. Stetson and J. W. Studebaker, superintends of schools, respectively, of Springfield, Detroit, Dayton and Des Moines.

Teachers Boost Hub as Ideal Convention City

Expressions of pride and appreciations are heard all around in convention hall of Boston as a convention city.

Never before have the Boston newspapers been so lauded by convention officials as by National Education Association officers, who attribute much of the success of the convention to the airtight and liberal support of space allotted the activities.

The fingerprinting of every citizen of the country, and that includes all school children, was contained in a suggestion sent by Mrs. Eugenia C. Colby of Sacramento, Calif., to the resolutions committee, which will pass on its adoption tomorrow.

Fourteen cities are clamoring to be next year's convention site for the department of superintendence. Cleveland was advertising itself with a huge banner in the Hotel Statler lobby. The banner was finally ordered taken down.

"It would look like a cattle show," explained Secretary Shankland of the hotel staff.

There are at least 57 varieties of education inequalities, according to Dr. Norma Frost of George Peabody College for Teachers.

Two thousand pupils from the schools of Greater Boston, under the direction of John A. O'Shea, director of music, gave an impressive living exhibit in Paul Revere Hall. It demonstrated to the visitors the emphasis Boston places on the cultural side of education.

* * *

Cleveland schools are at present training the apprentice of every bricklayer, carpenter, plumber, electrician, painter, paperhanger, steel metal and stonecutter in the city, conventionites were told.

"No! No!" yelled the audience listening to the speech of S. W. Chartres, professor of education, University of Chicago, when a newcomer asked him to speak before the "mike." What a tribute to the clear, loud and distinct enunciation of the Windy City program speaker! He took their hint.

* * *

Mrs. Lindbergh, mother of the "Lone Eagle," attended a Virginia breakfast held by the Virginia Education Association at the Fensgate hotel. Some 50 Virginia superintendents and educators were present. With Mrs. Lindbergh were Miss Cornelia S. Adair, N. E. A. president; Miss Florence Hale, editor of "Primary Education," and Mrs. Edith L. Groves, of the board of education of Ontario, Canada. Joseph H. Saunders, Virginia director of N. E. A., presided at the breakfast.

REISNER RAPS 'GRAVEYARD TEACHING'

"The continued teaching of ancient history is but an endemic holiday in the graveyard," declared Dr. E. H. Reisner, professor at the Teachers' College, Columbia University, today, speaking at the meeting of the National Association of College Teachers at the Copley-Plaza.

Dr. Reisner was one of the speakers on the subject, "Where Does One Go for the Fundamentals of Education?"

"A truth proclaimed in the 20th century is as good as a truth of the 18th century," he said. "Is it not an academic holiday in the graveyard?

"To my mind, it is neither history nor education."

Other speakers, expounding their views on the methods of teaching, included Dr. F. N. Freeman of the University of Chicago, Dr. V. T. Thayer of Ohio State University, Dr. C. C. Peters of Pennsylvania State College, Dean W. S. Sadler of the University of Nebraska, and Dean W. W. Kemp of the University of California.

Dr. Peters admonished the school superintendents present not to use dictatorial methods in the conduct of their office, stating that points of view were widely divergent among them, necessitating decision only after query of at least 100 persons interested in the particular problem involved in any controversy that may arise.

"Don't fight your school board," he said. "It is suicide to attempt to dictate."

BANKS OF LYNN UNDER GUARD

A detail of two uniformed police officers, heavily armed, today went on duty as a guard for the banks of Lynn.

Acting under orders from Chief of Police Thomas M. Burckes, Officer Daniel Horgan took up his post in Central sq., where a majority of the banks are located, while Officer Philip Landry assumed a strategic post on Market st.

The officers have ordered to shoot to kill if a bank holdup is attempted, and to hold the robbers up if unsuccessful in killing them, until the riot squad arrives.

According to Chief Burckes, he can get the riot squad to the scene in five minutes.

This action is the result of a request made by bankers to Mayor Bauer to find out whether the police were prepared to handle holdups.

'TEAMWORK' IS KEYNOTE OF ADDRESSES

Addresses made at 25 separate group meetings of the N. E. A. A. department of superintendence at its conference in Boston today, struck the following keynotes:

"It is pretty generally agreed that there is a direct relationship between salaries of teachers and efficient instruction."—Dr. Morgan L. Combs, Virginia State Department of Education.

"Too often the institutional training of teachers and subsequent in-service training suffer an abrupt and permanent break."—O. H. Plenzke, assistan. State superintendent, Wisconsin schools.

"Boys and girls must have opportunity for self-expression, an important factor in education."—Alfred C. True, United States Department of Agriculture.

"A competent person could take any of the existing educational tests and make them better instruments for measuring what they are intended to measure by a simple and straightforward appreciation of the facts of recent research."—Prof. E. L. Thorndike, Columbia University.

"Effective teamwork based on loyalty to the cause of service to children is essential to success in the use of any agency for improving teaching."—Charles F. Prior, superintendent of schools, Fairhaven.

"Since the habits, attitudes and sentiments formed early in life have such a tremendous influence in later years, health education must accept as its first objective wholesome living in the pre-school years and in our kindergarten and primary schools."—Dr. J. Mace Andress, Boston University.

Your Teeth

More Lovely Than You Think

This simple test is certain to surprise you

STUDY attractive people, men or women. Note the tremendous part gleaming, clear teeth play. Don't believe your teeth are naturally dull, "off color." You can disprove that. Can work a transformation in a surprisingly short time.

Modern science has found a new way in tooth and gum care. A way different from any you have ever known.

Run your tongue across your teeth, and you will feel a film, a viscous coat that covers them.

That film is an enemy to your teeth—and your gums. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. It absorbs discolorations and gives your teeth that cloudy, "off-color" look. Germs by the millions breed in it and lay your teeth open to decay. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea and gum disorders.

Old-time methods fail in successfully combating film. That's why your teeth remain dull and unattractive.

Now, in a new-type dentifrice called Pepsodent, dental science has provided effective combatants. Their action is to soak the film and remove it. Pepsodent also firms the gums.

Then the lovely, gleaming teeth you see will amaze you. That's where ordinary methods fail. Combat the film twice daily this scientific way.

Get Pepsodent at your druggist's or mail the coupon. A 10-day tube will be sent you free.

When they have sore throat—

Make them gargle often

Don't ever underestimate the danger of a sore throat; if neglected, it may develop into something serious—as many know to their sorrow.

The same goes for a cold; pneumonia at this time of the year is your great enemy.

At the first sign of cold or throat irritation, use Listerine full strength as a gargle. Keep it up systematically.

Being antiseptic, it immediately attacks the countless disease-producing bacteria in mouth and throat, and halts many an ailment before it becomes dangerous.

During winter weather, when you are usually subjected to poor air and sharp changes in temperature, it's a good idea to use Listerine every day as mouth wash and gargle.

This pleasant and easy precaution may spare you a trying and painful siege of illness. Lambert Pharmacal Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

There are two ways to get that wonderful Boston Baked flavor in beans. Old way: Bake them yourself. New way: Buy a can of Boston Style Beans baked by Heinz. They are both very good. But the Heinz kind is easier to get.

(Good news! The new kind of Heinz Oven-Baked Beans—Boston Style. Your grocer also has three other kinds.)

PROCLAMATION

I SUPPOSE I should make some statement for the school children and the women's clubs relative to the rumors that have been circulated about me.

It has been claimed by one Nannie Plunkett, nee Plunkett, that I refused to provide for her son.

Let me say that I have been too busy with affairs of state to pay much attention to the matter, and I scarcely know what she is saying.

I can say that I merely know the woman, have met her on a social way and the invited me to come board with her. She soon bounced my board. However, as I am informed that she was not married, I immediately left and have only seen her occasionally since.

Anyone familiar with my Platform and Campaign Pledges knows that I would not countenance any foolishness. Furthermore, Mrs. Frisby has perfect confidence in me.

I stand where I have always stood—against the Down Saloon, Race Subsidy, Slot Machines, Crime and Forest Fires.

WESLEY YATES AGAIN

(Lamar, Mo., special)

Wesley Yates was locked up by Night-watchman Estelle Tuesday night, and the next morning he was gone. Two nuts that had been on the end of the staples that held the jail door had been removed and the staple pulled out. The ends of the staple had been riveted against the nuts, so it looks like Wesley must have gotten hold of a pair of pliers.

Wesley had been on a canned beef souse for two or three days. He was located today at his grandmother's, where he had crawled in bed.

THE MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE

By HELEN ROWLAND

"WE" always has been the sweetest word in the English language—but it took a "Lindy" to give it its "place in the sun"; and for his airplane, more hurrahings make it the most popular.

* * *

If the average man showed half the tenderness, devotion and solicitude for his wife that Lindbergh shows for his airplane, more marriages would be plain sailing among the clouds and the stars, and fewer would crash to earth in the divorce courts.

* * *

Man may be more logical than woman. Still, when you see how many buttons, button-holes, gallouses, buckles and patent fasteners it requires to hold him together, and reflect that all the average girl's clothes are held on by a little faith and six inches of silly ribbon, you sometimes wonder.

When a modern girl rushes into a careless marriage, she probably figures that while she may not get "ideal," she can "make him do" until she finds something nearer to her heart's desire.

Spring Nonsense.

We sauntered down the city street,
All in an April rain!
But Spring and YOU were there—
and so,
That made it "Lovers' Lane"!

It matters not—the rain nor sun—
Nor where your steps may guide you,
Nor city street nor lonely lane—
It's just WHO walks beside you, tonight, that sets fashion signs.

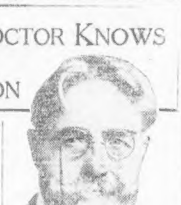
WHAT A DOCTOR KNOWS ABOUT CONSTIPATION



There is a way of overcoming the tendency to constipation. And here is how you can PROVE it.

The next time your bowels need any assistance, don't take the first laxative that comes to mind. Take one the druggist can assure you is made with CASCARA. Just as effective as using force, and it's good for the system. Indeed, it helps make good blood. For cascara is gathering but the bark of a tree. The Indians chew this bark, and live to an old age without a day's sickness.

What happens when you cascara the bowels? They will usually function well for SEVERAL DAYS. One more dose—no larger, and perhaps smaller than the first—and the bowels function of their own accord for a still longer time. Until you don't feel the need of any aid of any sort for weeks on end.

So, the only habit you get from cascara is that of natural and normal regularity. How different from things one must usually repeat on the morrow! Cascara is the ideal laxative, and the familiar little candy cascarets is doubtless its ideal form. Children beg for these tasty tablets, and many men and women wouldn't think of taking ANYTHING else for the purpose. And EVERY druggist has them.

STOP BAD BREATH

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The blessed soap-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, clearing the blood of poisons, purifying the entire system. They do not irritate the bowels, nor disturb you with any of the pill-like effects. Many thousands of men and women gain quick, wholesome results.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 500 cases of intestinal trouble came to his office. Olive Tablets are purely vegetable and harmless. Get a box today and note the effect. 15c, 30c, 60c. All Druggists.

Use Cuticura Soap And Ointment To Heal Sore Hands

For sore throat, there's a swift and sure way to soothe away the inflammation. Every druggist knows the secret! Dissolve Bayer Aspirin tablets in pure water, and gargle. Nothing in the whole realm of medicine is more helpful in cases of sore throat. And you probably know how Aspirin dispels a headache; breaks up colds, relieves rheumatic pain, neuralgia, neuritis, lumbago! Just make certain to get genuine Bayer Aspirin. Demand the Bayer cross on the box, and on each tablet. All druggists, with proven directions.

Physicians prescribe Bayer Aspirin; it does NOT affect the heart

PEPPER OPPOSES THE BANK TAX BILL

Washington, Feb. 29 (AP)—The Norbeck bill, to allow the states to tax national banks, was opposed before the Senate banking committee today by Senator George Wharton Pepper of Pennsylvania.

Such legislation is "at best premature," said Pepper, who appeared as a representative of three Pennsylvania banks.

"It is a poor time for legislative power," said Pepper, "to be continually tinkering with the basis of taxation."

Stewart to Remain Standard Oil Chairman

Chicago, Feb. 29 (INS)—Robert W. Stewart, one of the central figures in the United States Senate oil investigation, who defied the request of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., to "tell all" to the Senate, will be re-elected chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana at the meeting tomorrow.

A number of changes in the members of the board, in fact, almost a unanimous vote, will place Stewart back in the chairman's seat despite the fact he is viewed with displeasure by Rockefeller.

FINE PROGRAM BY SYMPHONY

By MOSES SMITH.

Music that ranged in character from the breadth of Handel and the serenity of Mozart to the pathemia of Mozart to the exc lent emotionalism of the epoch "Pathetique," just as it was a mistake to play this some symphony a couple of weeks ago immedia ely after the nervous piano concerto of Bartok.

The Concerto Grosso was beautifully performed, even better than it was last week. As on that occasion the first three movements were perfectly read, while this time the last movment was not subjected to unwarranted liberties with the tempo. For the beginning of the Mozart symphony several of the wind instruments were audibly out of tune, and the whole performance would have gained measurably by a surer attack from these same instruments.

The "Pathetique," which was written in 1893, has almost reached a comfortable middle age, yet is popularity is on the ascendant. One reason for this is the absence of a program. The lack of any definite story gives the listener an opportunity to make his own setting to the dramatic work, and thus increase his enjoyment.

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN BOSTON, FEBRUARY 29, 1928

Notorious Power Lobby Should Be Probed by Senate Committee Which Already Has Performed Great Service

1—A Senate investigating committee uncovered the scandals in the Veterans' Bureau and sent its head, Colonel Forbes, to prison.

2—Senator Walsh's committee disclosed the money given Secretary Fall in return for corrupt leases of naval oil reserves.

3—Senator Reed's committee bared the scandalous expenditure of corporate funds in Illinois and Pennsylvania elections.

4—Is the Power Trust powerful enough to block a Senate investigation of the Power Lobby?

THE reactionaries of the Senate, in refusing to sanction an investigation of the power trust by Senator Walsh's committee, are in direct conflict with the position taken by President Coolidge.

The electric power lobby is the most notorious in the nation. Speaking before the National Press Club, on February 7, the President deplored the fact that legislative agents of corporate interests were not compelled to take out Government licenses and disclose their identity as is done by the men who plead the case of these interests before the Supreme Court.

The President said that:

"Since they (the lobbyists) are not required to make disclosure of the interests they undertake to serve, it is necessary to depend on the press for such information."

The press can be depended on to assure publicity for the power trust lobby as the facts are brought out. The way to bring the facts out is by exercise of the strong powers that reside in a Senate committee. Senator Walsh is the one to make the investigation. He has shown his ability in the oil investigation, which is the outstanding achievement of the Senate in the last five years.

Instead, the majority of the Senate listened to the demands of the power trust lobby and ordered the investigation made by the Federal Trade Commission. This appointive body, packed with stand-patters, is dominated by its chairman, Humphreys, whose lack of sympathy with the commission is proved by the fact that he voted against its creation when he was a Congressman.

So far the Federal Trade Commission has given us no investigation that led anywhere. Senate committee investigations have produced the following results to the public:

1—A Senate investigation of the Veterans' Bureau bared the shocking frauds in expending money from Veterans' Hospital funds and sent Forbes to the penitentiary.

2—A Senate investigation of the Illinois and Pennsylvania elections showed that it took nearly three million dollars of corporate funds to elect two Senators. As a consequence, Smith of Illinois has been barred from the Senate. Vare of Pennsylvania will likely be shut out also.

3—A Senate investigation of the naval oil land leases resulted in the cancellation of those leases, the return of over ten million dollars to the Government and the trial (not yet finished) of Secretary of Interior Fall and the lessees as criminals.

When such results are produced by investigations conducted by Senators directly responsible to the people, it is no wonder that corporate interests want the business of investigating turned over to a hand-picked, appointive Federal Trade Commission.

Once more this newspaper asks:

THE PRESIDENT DIDN'T HESITATE TO ATTACK THESE DEMORALIZING, THESE TREASONABLE, LOBBIES. WHY SHOULD THE SENATE PROTECT THEM?

Keep "Peaches" Out!

Girl Made Notorious by an Unsavory Trial Should Not Be Foisted on the Boston Public as an Entertainer

A new attempt is being made to foist "Peaches" Browning, a girl made notorious by an unsavory trial in New York City, on the Boston public as an entertainer.

The Licensing Commission for the City of Boston will give a public hearing at 1 Beacon street at 10 o'clock tomorrow on the application of a South End night club that "Peaches" appear in its cabaret. She cannot sing, neither can she dance. Even if she could, her principal claim to the spotlight lies in the sordid story in which she was a principal character.

Boston does not demand this class of entertainers. Boston should not be given this class.

"Peaches" was barred from the Boston stage a year ago, [illegible] so she should come to the city now, under cover [illegible]

20 YEARS OF WEDDED LIFE IN HAPPINESS

By DR. FRANK CRANE

SOMEHOW the item in the papers escaped my attention at the time it was published and I have only recently heard of the death of my friend, Senator Dupuy, of Paris.

Mr. Dupuy was a remarkable man.

He had built up a newspaper, the Petit Parisien, which had a very large circulation. He also published some other papers.

He was active in French politics and always an affable and courteous gentleman.

Sometime ago he visited the United States with his wife. He made a very favorable impression.

But perhaps the most remarkable thing about Senator Dupuy is his marital achievement.

He lived with Mrs. Dupuy, who was an American girl, for over twenty years, and her testimony to me is that during all this time she had known the most perfect and wonderful happiness, and that in all these years she had not experienced a moment's unhappiness, and never a word of discord. She says that in their household there was always joy and there was always harmony because of her husband's wonderful influence.

This experience is worthy to stand as a pillar of light in these days when the marital relation is considered so lightly by many.

I had the privilege of visiting Senator Dupuy and Mrs. Dupuy in their home at Versailles and can bring my personal testimony to bear upon the fact that their domestic life was ideal.

How much better off the world would be if there were more men like this.

New York Day by Day

O. O. McINTYRE

AT SEA, Feb. 29—If it were possible to comb Fifth avenue, the slowery and Broadway for two most distinctive types, they could be matched on any transatlantic liner. A salt attracts human oddities in the same fashion molasses draws flies.

There is the fresh—oh, how fresh—collegiate who seems to have been slapped in the face with a bar towel or something and remains "that way" throughout the voyage. If there is a doubt about his college association he will sing "Boola, Boola" to clinch it. He is just a boisterous noise. And a pest.

And the sea sophisticate. He speaks of the finest ship you can mention as "a drafty old tub." He has participated in all the ocean disasters and spent countless days in an open boat, serving precious water out of an eyedropper. He is an amusing old grandiose liar.

There is the rich young lifer who has contracted an European liaison with a vampirus cutie. To all appearances they are honeymooners until about the fifth day, when he will likely sour of the attachment and begin rehashing his woes to figure out how he can shake her in London fog.

And the ocean nymph who piles the liners breathing the age-old profession. She selects her victim with the accuracy of a hawk spiraling over a brood of innocent chicks, and swoops down on her prize as if suddenly, he will be wheelbarrowed away at Plymouth or Havre. They all do.

There is the wobbly gentleman of the smoking room with fat-whitened whiskers and a memoir. He is the sort you fear will ask you where you are from and you will have to tell him some outlandish whistle stop with the conventional red depot. He speaks of Harlem as casually as we speak of Chicago.

And those important men who travel with valets, chauffeurs, and secretaries. And ladies with companions and maids. The aged couple from Iowa on the first journey. The young sap—usually with wide ears and buck teeth—who follows a sophisticated beauty around like a poodle. When papa catches him he will have to go back to Yale.
